COVID-19 Protocol and Guidelines

The Open Dutch follows the guidelines of the RIVM. Developments and guidelines, both locally and internationally, are closely monitored by the organizing committee. When booking your flights and hotel, please refer to the cancellation process (and potential fees) of the booking agency, hotel, and/or airline. The Open Dutch cannot be held accountable for any costs associated with a cancellation of the event or cancellation of participation.

Entry to the venue is only permitted to people (participants, spectators, coaches, referees) who can provide valid identification papers (ID or passport) in combination with a valid digital COVID-19 certificate (QR code). The Open Dutch cannot be held accountable for any inconvenience, and/or costs, associated with access being denied to the venue and/or tournament as a result of an incorrect, or missing, digital COVID-19 certificate. We would like to refer all participants, spectators, coaches, and referees to the following website for the guidelines around how to obtain a valid digital COVID-19 certificate:
