REGISTRATION

Malaysia is open to international tourists. You no longer need to seek additional permission from the Malaysian Government to enter Malaysia.

Check pre-departure requirements on MySafe Travel.

Entry requirements vary according to your vaccination status. Vaccination status is defined at MySafeTravel.

If you're fully vaccinated against COVID-19 you don't need to have a pre-departure or on-arrival COVID-19 test. You also don't need to quarantine. If you're partially vaccinated or unvaccinated, you must take a supervised COVID-19 (RTK-AG) test within 24 hours of arrival. Also, you'll need to quarantine for five days. See further information on testing and entry requirements on MySafe Travel.

Entry requirements are changing regularly as COVID-19 restrictions continue to ease and Malaysia moves to an endemic phase. Entry requirements may change at short notice. Monitor the websites of the Malaysian Department of Immigration, My Safe Travel and the Malaysian Ministry of Health, as well as social media for any changes. Confirm entry requirements with the Malaysian High Commission or Consulate-General in Australia before travel.

As Malaysia moves to an endemic phase, the Malaysian Government intends to simplify COVID-19 restrictions. Until then you must follow the existing Standard Operating Procedures (SOP). The SOPs are available on the Malaysian National Security Council website (Malay) and the MySejahtera app (Malay).

Transit requirements are subject to change at short notice. Confirm with your airline that you're permitted to transit via Malaysia to your final destination.

Kuala Terengganu is located on the opposite coast from Kuala Lumpur, which means a flight will be your best option for getting there quickly, and there are plenty of flights from Kuala Lumpur to Kuala Terengganu available, often at value fares.

There are three airports in and around Kuala Lumpur. Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) is the main airport where all international flights arrive at. Malaysia Airlines, Malindo Air, AirAsia, and Firefly offer flights to Kuala Terengganu departing from KUL. If you'll be departing from SZB, your options will be similar.
