Dear Sir/ Madam,

After 3 years of pandemic locked down control, finally everything is back to normal in 2023. Our association decided to organize the 168th session of IIC in China purpose is to encourage all our ITF members in the country as well as brothers & sisters at abroad that we are ready & begin to restart the momentum of keep growing the art of TKD. All ITF members are invited to attend the event, we stay hand in hand & we support each other!

This course is not just for instructors but it is a course covering all aspects of the beautiful Arts of TKD & it is suitable to attend by members of all ages. ITF require all members to attend at least one IIC between each grading from 3rd degree and onwards.

Overseas members need to make registration with us as well as register on the ITF database at the same time so that certificates can be processed in advance & all participants can receive own certificate right after the IIC event.

IIC China will be the last IIC so far organize in Asia this year, so who wish to learning new knowledge of TKD & who are interested to take black belt grading & promotion, it is necessary to plan ahead to joining this wonderful event.

Best Regards,

Wang Xu, VI Dan

President

China International United TKD Association, (IUTA)
