Dear Grandmasters, Masters, Instructors, Assistant Instructors and Students of Taekwon-Do!

Dear Grand Masters, Masters, Instructors, Assistant Instructors and Students of Taekwon-Do!

We are honored that on the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the Slovak Taekwondo Association ITF we can and have the opportunity to invite you to a historic event - the very first international instructor course (IIC) with the participation of the entire ITF Technical Commission. The invitation was accepted by GM Hector Marano TC Charman, Master Virginia Dianisi TC Member, GM Jurek Jedut TC Member, GM Ung Kim Lan TC Member, GM Pierre Laquerre TC Member, GM Paul McPhail TC Member.

At this special IIC, all members of the technical and instructor committee will be actively involved in the presentation and sharing of their knowledge during the course. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to train, learn and connect with the entire ITF Technical Committee.

Join us in Slovakia and experience an unforgettable experience in the true spirit of Taekwon-Do!

The IIC course will take place in the picturesque city of Trnava, nicknamed the Little Rome of Slovakia.

Trnava is a city where people live royally. It will win you over with its unique atmosphere, rich history and culture. Whether you are a lover of history, art, want to have fun or are just looking for a place to relax, Trnava has a lot to offer you. Trnava is a lively city with a rich offer of cultural and sports events, but it also offers opportunities for relaxation, spending time in nature or sports. The heart of Trnava is its historic center, which was declared a Municipal Conservation Area in 1987. It is dominated by Trinity Square with a Baroque sculpture of the Holy Trinity and a Renaissance city tower with a unique view of the city and its surroundings.

Trains

Trnava is located in a very advantageous geographical position, only 45 kilometers from Bratislava. It also has excellent connections with Vienna, Prague and Budapest. You can easily get to Trnava by train connections, which run at frequent intervals in all directions.

Buses

The modernized building of the ARRIVA Trnava bus station is located near the train station, specifically on the other side of Staničná Street. The station has connections with all major Slovak cities, as well as with the Czech cities of Hodonín, Brno and Krakow, Poland.

However, the fastest way to get to the center of Trnava from the train or bus station is on foot. The journey to the beginning of the pedestrian zone takes approximately 5 minutes. It takes 15 minutes to walk to the sports hall.

Accommodation

There are several hotels in close proximity. There is no hotel partner for the IIC course, so you are free to choose your accommodation.
