By Laws No. 1

(Version 1/25, including amendments implemented by April 2025)

On November 28th, 2009, the Board of Directors of the ITF approved unanimously the adoption of By-Law No.1. It was then duly signed by the President and the Secretary-General. Excerpts of By-Law No. 1 and headings of all sections are reproduced below. To obtain a copy of the complete text, please contact the National Association in your country or the Secretary-General of the ITF.

1. Scope of Application

The International Taekwon-Do Federation, ITF, and all affiliated organizations operate in accordance with the Constitution as approved at the Extraordinary General Assembly held on 28th April 2019 in Inzell, Germany, or in accordance with any further amendments duly approved by the Extraordinary General Assemblies that took place after 2019. (Amended 3/2021)

The By-Laws, Rules and Regulations supplement the Constitution and reflect the detailed policy of the ITF. The By-Laws must be in harmony with the Constitution and, in case of conflict, the terms of the Constitution prevail.

2. Communications

English and Spanish are the official languages of the ITF, but other languages may also be used where appropriate.

Meetings of the Board of Directors and of the various committees may be held in person, by telephone or by Skype videoconferencing.

Official ITF information may be transmitted through:

- a. E-mails and/or letters.
- b. Advertising, featuring in-depth articles.
- c. Official Web site.

3. Guiding Principles

- a. Practitioners of Taekwon-Do (TKD) recognize that they are forever students of our Founder, General Choi Hong Hi. The ITF and its affiliated organizations will strengthen and promote the legacy of General Choi as described in his Encyclopedia of Taekwon-Do, notably the twenty-four patterns and his philosophy.
- b. The ITF belongs to all its members and must work for its members and with its members to provide the services they need and want.
- c. The ITF and its affiliated organizations are always open to suggestions from members and encourage innovative ideas.
- d. The ITF and its affiliated organizations are and must remain free of all political influence.
- e. All decisions made by the administrators of the ITF and its affiliated organizations must be fair, impartial and justified.
- f. The ITF must play a proactive role in strategic areas such as communications and the development of ITF Taekwon-Do in its four facets as a sport and a martial art but also as a way of life and a tool for social development.

INTERNATIONAL
TAEKWON-DO
FEDERATION

- g. The ITF and its affiliated organizations must put maximum on-going efforts into building and maintaining an efficient structure and professional operation.
- h. All qualifications and promotions within the ITF and its affiliated organizations will be attributed according to merit and in conformity with well-established criteria.
- i. The key to the future development of the ITF and its affiliated organizations is its core group of Grand Masters, Masters and Instructors.
- j. Each individual who holds an official position in the ITF or an affiliated organization or is accredited by the ITF (including instructors, umpires, seminar leaders, examiners) must be an active member. This means they must have taken the appropriate courses, have the required certificates, and have paid all fees applicable. They must not be subject to disciplinary measures and must respect and apply the regulations of the ITF.
- k. The respect of hierarchy authority is an important principle in all martial arts. All members of ITF will respect those who are their seniors in the organization, particularly their teacher. On the other hand, the seniors will treat their students and other juniors with respect and fairness.

4. Structure

4.1 The General Assembly – Voting Procedure

Each member representing his country has the right to attend with a maximum of two delegates. Only one of the representatives has the right to vote. The number of votes is based on the number of the schools/clubs (plaque holders) in their country.

- a. From one (1) to twenty five (25) schools/clubs (plaque holders): one (1) vote.
- b. From twenty six (26) to fifty (50) schools/clubs (plaque holders): two (2) votes.
- c. From fifty one (51) to seventy five (75) schools/clubs (plaque holders): three (3) votes.
- d. From seventy six (76) to one hundred (100) schools/clubs (plaque holders): four (4) votes.
- e. From one hundred and one (101) and up, schools/clubs (plaque holders): five (5) votes. (maximum)

Members who thirty (30) days before the beginning of the ITF General Assembly are not current with the payment of all fees, and other contributions, whose payments are liable as members and had not been refuted judicially or been proceeded to the judicial or notarial consignment of the amount to be received, may participate in the ITF General Assembly although they are not entitled to vote. The minutes of the ITF General Assembly must indicate those members who were not qualified to vote according above mentioned.

4.2 The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is composed of nine (9) members elected from amongst the candidates nominated by the Member Associations for the following positions:

- a) President;
- b) one (1) Senior Vice President;
- c) one (1) Vice President;
- d) one (1) Treasurer; and
- e) five (5) members at large. (Amended 1/2023)

All members of the Board of Directors must be elected in the Congress and serve a four-year term.

INTERNATIONAL
FEDERATION

Board Meetings are generally held once a year. When possible, these meetings are planned to coincide with international events.

In between meetings, on a monthly basis or for urgent business, Board Members will be contacted by e-mail or other means to vote or provide their opinion on subjects within their mandate.

The Board:

- a. Approves objectives, action plans and budgets.
- b. Amends and approves By-Laws, rules, policies and procedures.
- c. Presents to General Assembly for approval any modifications to the Constitution that may become necessary.
- d. Participates in development and review of strategic planning.
- e. For each Standing Committee, nominates a Chair and approves the list of committee members submitted by the Chair.
- f. Approves decisions of the Grand Masters Promotion Committee (including recognition of certificates from other organizations).
- g. Approves decisions of the Technical & Instruction, Tournament and Umpire Committee.
- h. Ratifies decisions to accept new members.
- i. Makes decisions about cases of discipline and expulsion.
- j. Makes decisions to take legal action when necessary.
- k. Takes any other actions within the mandate conferred by the Constitution and in the best interests of the ITF and its members.
- l. May apply temporary disciplinary measures to a member or an individual.

When an item relating to the country of a member of the Board of Directors is voted for then that member will have no vote.

Members of the Board of Directors normally may not be part of any Standing Committee to avoid situation of conflict of interest, however the Board may allow a Board Member to be a member of a Committee if it is in the best interests of the ITF to do so. (Amended 9/2019)

The Board of Directors may approve expenses of up to € 5,000 (five thousand Euros) per case.

4.2.1 Conflict of Interest.

Procedure – conflict of interest

- a. A Board member who believes that he has a conflict of interest in a specific case must inform the other Board Members about the case and recuse himself from any involvement in that specific case.
- b. It also includes the situation if a reasonable objective observer would think he might have personal interest in the outcome of a case.
- c. If a Board member is in doubt of being in such a situation, he should ask for the opinion of the other Board members in order to receive a majority vote decision.
- d. If any of the Board members think that another Board member could have a conflict of interest in the case, and this Board member does not recuse himself from the case, he should ask for the opinion of the other Board members.
- e. Before any discussion and/or voting the Board member who has the conflict of interest has the right to express his opinion in front of all others Board members.
- f. The majority of the Board members might declare the Board member partial in a specific case and demanding him to leave the meeting.
- g. Procedures have the same effect if a case is going to be decided by e-mail correspondence.

Members are classified as:

- a. National Association (NA)
- b. Recognized Allied Association (AA)
- c. Recognized Specified Allied Association (SAA) (Amended 6/2020)
- d. Recognized Club, School or Training Centre

4.11.1 Continental Federations & Regional Federations (CF & RF) (Amended 7/2020)

Member Associations that belong to the same continent may establish a Continental Federation and Member Associations that belong to the same region may establish a Regional Federation, subject to being recognized by the ITF.

Continental Federations ("CF") and Regional Federations ("RF") must be legally registered in one of the member states of the CF or the RF, as the case may be. They must be (a) democratic organizations (b) applying strictly a policy of no discrimination in any aspect (c) avoid conflicts of interests in decision-making (d) legislative bodies must be constituted in accordance with the principles of representative democracy and taking into account the importance of gender equality in ITF (e) maintain yearly independent audits of accounts; and (f) structured in harmony with the ITF Constitution.

While CFs may be recognized on a geographic basis and its members must be located at countries within same continent, RFs may be established based on recognized common fundamental reasons and interests that will be solid enough to convince the ITF Board of the need of such organization even if its member are located in different continents, while always considering the best interests of the ITF as a condition to such recognition of both a CF or a RF. The ITF Board may establish the binding procedure for the application to be recognized as a CF or a RF. In any case, even if such procedure was not yet established, The CFs' and RFs' statutes and regulations, as revised from time to time, shall be submitted – translated into English - to the ITF for prior approval. The Statutes and Regulations of the CF or RF must contain the undertakings detailed hereunder.

The ITF Board may revise the activities of the CF and the RF from time to time and may revoke the recognition if the ITF Board will find that the CF or the RF does not comply with the following duties.

CFs and RFs are not members of ITF. The recognition may be considered subject to the undertaking of the CF or the RF to accept, fulfill and be committed to the following duties:

- a. Consists of National Associations (NA) recognized and affiliated to the ITF on the continent or the relevant region.
- b. The CF and the RF will accept as members, without any limitation whatsoever, all the NAs in the relevant continent or all the NAs in the countries of the RF that meet the criteria laid down and being the reason for the establishment of the Regional Federation.
- c. Neither the CF nor the RF or any of its members is or will be a member of any International Taekwon-Do body other than ITF.
- d. Assures the respect and implementation of ITF By-Laws, policies, standards, and rules by the NAs on that continent or region.
- e. Ensures that all Black Belts and all Taekwon-Do teaching members and examiners have official ITF certification and that all the members at the country of the member are members of ITF, under any of the ITF member status.
- f. Collaborates in the preparation of the yearly ITF calendar of competitions and other activities.
- g. Organizes and coordinates tournaments between member countries on the relevant continent or region.
- h. Organizes seminars and other activities within the relevant continent or region.
- i. Coordinates the timing of Continental or regional events such as seminars and International courses taking place on that continent or region.
- j. Sends an activity report to the Board of Directors of the ITF during the first quarter of each calendar year and covering the activity during the past year.
- k. May collect annual fees from their member countries subject to the prior approval of ITF regarding the amount of the annual fees.
- l. Will not collect from its members or from the ITF members in the country members any other fees or payment for any activity, plaques, black belts or any other matter, except of payments for participation in the tournaments organized by the CF or the RF.

4.11.2 National Association (NA)

- a. In each country there will be only one affiliated Association holding the status of National Association (NA), as approved by the Board of Directors
- b. The approved NA shall be the Association considered the most advantageous to the cause of the ITF and must be ratified at the next Congress
- c. A member affiliated to the ITF from a country where the legal or regulatory restrictions allows it only to acquire the status of an SAA under By Law 4.11.4, will not be entitled to be approved as an NA. The status of a member being an SAA may not change to be NA as long as the reasons for granting it the status of SAA exist in its country (Amended 6/2020)

FEDERATION

The Board of Directors yearly reviews that the NA fulfils all the requirements in order to keep its status

- d. The NA represents their country in the Continental or ITF General Assembly.

NA Requirements:

- a. Must be a democratic and well-structured Association/Federation and legally registered as non-profit organization at the Ministry of Sports. In case of impossibility to register to the Ministry of Sports another instance of a well-structured legally registered administration and non-profit organization might be accepted.
- b. Affiliating all instructors with a minimum of 15 Instructors in possession of ITF teaching plaques and 25 black belt holders (requirements may change according to the country's population, economical resources or existing laws, etc).
- c. Sends one delegate to the Continental Federation and ITF General Assembly Congress.
- d. Represents officially the ITF in that country and may not be a member of any National, Continental or International Taekwon-Do organization or similar body without the permission of the ITF. In case the NA is integrated into another national martial arts association, the discipline of Taekwon-Do ITF must comply with the ITF rules.
- e. Assures implementation and respect of the ITF Constitution, By-Laws, policies, regulations of the International Taekwon-Do Federation.
- f. Ensures that all Black Belts, teaching members, and examiners have official ITF certification.
- g. Ensures that its Members are not affiliated to any other National or International Taekwon-Do or similar body other than ITF.
- h. Will be able to issue national Black Belt Certificates to those that possess an ITF Black Belt certificate.
- i. May organize national Umpire seminars given by qualified ITF "A" Class Umpires and might request the ITF Umpire "B" certificate.

- k. Ensures that only those authorized by ITF are involved in the manufacture, distribution, and sale of doboks, equipment, badges, and other items bearing the logo and/or the name of ITF.
- l. In the first quarter of each calendar year, makes a report to the Board of Directors.
- m. Must pay the annual membership fee before March 30th.
- n. Collects Extraordinary membership fees (plaques and certificates) of its members and remits appropriate amounts to ITF.
- o. The NA shall maintain a cordial relation with the AA.

In order to remain a National Association (NA) the NA must request at least 15 Plaques Licenses yearly. (Requirements may change according to the country's population, economical resources or existing laws, etc).

National Associations (NA) who do not fulfil above mentioned requirements or are unable to deliver required documents, if requested, as laid down in art. 4.11.2, may lose the status of NA but might obtain the status of recognized AA.

4.11.3 Allied Association (AA)

In addition to the NA in a country, the ITF Board may recognize other Associations as "Allied Associations" (AA) that submits an application meeting all the requirements under the By Laws to be recognized as an AA. In the case where there already exists an NA in that country that is active and complies in a timely and consistent manner with all its duties as a member of the ITF, the decision of the ITF Representative Body on such a request will be rendered after a consultation process with the relevant NA, in which the NA will be asked to send its comments and its position with respect to the AA application, and in case the NA will object the recognition of the AA, the NA will be required to detail the grounds for its objection. However, the decision will always remain at the full discretion of the ITF Representative Body that will be entitled to recognize an AA regardless of the NA objection. (Amended 1/2020)

INTERNATIONAL
FEDERATION

The ITF does not accept applications from Associations that:

- a. Received disciplinary sanctions or were expelled by any other national or International Taekwon-Do Federation.
- b. Released negative propaganda towards the ITF through articles, letters, interviews and other.

- d. Are affiliated or have commitments to other Taekwon-Do groups/associations which practice ITF Taekwon-Do in their country.
- e. Don't wish to be part of the National Association anymore but aren't able to supply a credible reason to create an Allied Association.

In addition the applicant, to be eligible to apply for a temporary recognition as an AA, must fulfil the following requirements:

- a. Must be democratic, legally well-structured and registered as nonprofit association.
- b. Affiliate all instructors with a minimum of 10 Instructors and 20 black belt holders (requirements may change according to the country's population, economical resources or existing laws, etc).
- c. Must practice Taekwon-Do as taught by the founder of TKD, General Choi Hong Hi, and act in accordance with the ITF Constitution, By-Laws, policies, standards, and regulations.
- d. Must not be a member of any National or International Taekwon-Do or similar body other than ITF. In case the AA is integrated into another national martial arts association, the discipline of Taekwon-Do ITF must comply with the ITF rules.
- e. Must ensure that all Black Belts, teaching members, and examiners have official ITF certification.
- f. May organize national Umpire seminars given by qualified ITF "A" Class Umpires and might request the ITF Umpire "B" certificate.
- g. Must ensure that only those authorized by ITF are involved in the manufacture, distribution, and sale of doboks, equipment, badges, and other items bearing the logo and/or the name of ITF.
- h. Must collect extraordinary fees from their members previous to 31st March and remit appropriate amounts to ITF.
- i. Must affiliate all instructors with a minimum of 10 Instructors, and must request yearly the teaching license (plaque) for the Instructors.
- j. The AA shall maintain a cordial relation with the NA and will not create problems for the existing National Association.

(Requirements may change according to the country's population, economical resources or existing laws, etc).

Allied Associations (AA) who does not fulfill the above mentioned requirements may lose the status of AA and might obtain the status as a Recognized Taekwon-Do School, Club and/or Recognized Training Centre.

INTERNATIONAL
FEDERATION

An existing Allied Associations (AA) that is unable to deliver required documents – if requested - as laid down in art. 4.11.3 - may lose their status as AA and might obtain the status as a Taekwon-Do School, Club and/or Training Centre.

4.11.4 Specified Allied Association (SAA) (Amended 6/2020)

Subject to the specific terms and the specific exemptions stipulated in this By Law 4.11.4, the terms of By law 4.11.3 will apply with respect to the recognition and affiliation to the ITF of a SAA.

- a. The Board of Directors, when dealing with an application of a member candidate to be granted membership pursuant to Art. 6 of the ITF status, must enquire whether the candidate is a member of any National, Continental or International Taekwon-Do/Taekwondo organization or similar body ("The other Taekwon-do body") or if its members are at the same time affiliated to The other Taekwon-Do body or if they have to cooperate with or assume commitments towards such other Taekwon-Do body.
- b. If the result of such enquiry is of the affirmative, and the Board of Directors is satisfied that this other affiliation at national level is a result of the mandatory requirements imposed by the national law or regulations in the country of the member, stating that in order to be recognized and/or to be entitled to practice ITF in the same country and getting benefits provided by the National Sport Authority, the association must be a member of The other Taekwon-Do body, The Board of Directors may approve the affiliation of the Applicant to the ITF subject to the conditions of sub-sectors (c) & (d) in this By Law.
- c. Before approving the membership of such member under By Law 4.11.4 (e), the board of directors must also be satisfied that under the structure of The Other Taekwon-Do body, a specific and independent sector exists where the Applicant enjoys full independence in the management of its activities and that its members and practitioners practice Taekwon-Do as stipulated in By law 4.11.3 (c).
- d. Before approving the affiliation of the Applicant to the ITF pursuant to Art. 6 of the Statutes, the Applicant will be informed by the Secretary General that under the specific circumstances in its country, its membership may be approved but only with the status of an SAA, and will be asked to confirm in writing its understanding of such specified affiliation as a pre-condition to the approval
- e. If the conditions under sub sectors (b), (c) & (d) are fulfilled the Board of Directors may grant the application of the Applicant to become a member and then move to grant such new member the status of an SAA.
- f. the following specific adjusted terms regarding By Law 4.11.3 will not apply with respect to a SAA:
 - (1) In case that an NA or an AA exists in same country and the Board came to the understanding that no agreement could be reached between the NA and the Applicant, the Board may exempt the Applicant from the need to reach such agreement as a pre-condition to the approval of an ITF member and recognition as an SAA.
 - (2) 4.11.3 both sub paragraphs (d) will not apply with respect to a SAA .
 - (3) In the application of the two last paragraphs of By Law 4.11.3 the SAA may be downgraded to a Specified recognized Taekwon-Do School/Club/Training Center.

4.11.5 Recognized Taekwon-Do School, Club and/or Training Centre.

In a country where there does not exist an NA or AA, or where the applicant does not meet the required items, a Taekwon-Do School, Club and/or Training Centre might be recognized by the ITF Board of Directors. All Black Belts must be in possession of the ITF Black Belt Degree certificate. Instructors teaching in the recognized Schools/Clubs and/or Training Centre must be in possession of the teaching license (plaque).

In a country where any requested membership the applicant cannot fulfil the affiliation requirements they might be accepted as a recognized club or school.

This By Law 4.11.5 will apply mutatis mutandis to candidates from countries with legal framework as in By law 4.11.4. (b). Therefore, the recognition of a member of such countries as a Taekwon-Do School/Club/Training Center will be possible under the same terms and procedure as stated in By law 4.11.4 (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f). (Amended 6/2020)

4.12 Procedure between National Association (NA) and Allied Association (AA):

4.12.1 Organizations:

The entities are entitled to work independently following the By Laws, Rules and Regulations.

Entities will remain, economically and administratively independent of the National Association (NA) and have the possibility to have their own activities.

4.12.2 Countries with one or more than one Allied Association (AA):

In countries where one or more than one Allied Association (AA) in agreement exists, the Board of Directors will appoint one Chairman who will be the representative for all of them during Continental and ITF General meetings.

4.12.3 Promotions for Black Belt degree:

Organizations are authorized to promote to Black Belt Degree, requesting the ITF Black Belt certificate within one month of the promotion test.

- a. The NA will be in charge of updating the National Discipline Register. The AA will provide the information needed.
- b. Both entities are deemed independent for a disciplinary matter and will accept the decision of the other with previous agreement of the ITF.

4.12.4 International Instructor and /or Umpire Courses:

- a. Any NA or AA have the right to organize an International Instructor, Umpire Course, Kids or any other ITF course and it must allow the participation of any member of the ITF. In case that both organizations request the same course, the NA will have priority.
- b. In the case an AA wishes to organize an IIC or IUC, it must obtain approval from the ITF.

7.5 Hierarchy

7.5.1 Seniority among Members

Seniority is established according to grade or degree. If two members hold the same degree, seniority will be established according to the following rule:

INTERNATIONAL
FEDERATION

- a. The date on the grade or degree certificate determines seniority.
- b. If two members hold the same grade or degree and their certificates were issued on the same date, the one who started practicing Taekwon-Do earlier will be considered senior.
- c. If the above criteria are not decisive, the person with the earlier date of birth will be considered to be senior.

7.5.2 Respect & Affiliation

- a. The student owes respect, loyalty, and gratitude to his teacher at all times because of the teaching and guidance he has received. Therefore, as the student progresses to higher levels in ITF Taekwon-Do, he continues to work in affiliation with his teacher. Exceptionally, a student may reach a higher Black Belt degree than his teacher, who may have interrupted his training for some reason. Nevertheless, the student must show a special regard for that former teacher.
- b. Income from the operations of an ITF accredited school, such as examination fees, might be divided between the Master and the instructors according to agreement.

7.5.3 Arbitration

Sometimes, particular circumstances make it difficult for a student and his teacher to continue working in harmony. The student may request permission from the NA or AA to change to another teacher.

7.5.4 Sanctions

After investigation, the ITF Ethics & Discipline Committee may recommend that the Board of Directors apply sanctions, which may include expulsion.
